Second Sunday of Easter

We are a community that is passionate about sharing the love of Jesus Christ, and we provide as many opportunities as we can to help everyone grow spiritually and in loving service to the community and the world.

We're glad you're here. We are a congregation of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America (ELCA) and celebrate the work we're able to do together. (to learn more about the ELCA visit www.elca.org).

Those joining worship online, whether live or later in the week, are invited to prepare their worship space by creating a home altar. You might include meaningful linens, candles, a cross, enough bread or crackers and wine or juice for everyone at your table, and anything that helps you engage more fully in worship. This altar becomes a gathering place for prayers, songs, communion, and a shared sense of God's presence in your home.

CALL TO WORSHIP

Lord, I Lift Your Name on High

Lord, I lift Your name on high; Lord, I love to sing Your praises.
I'm so glad you're in my life. I'm so glad you came to save us.

You came from heaven to earth to show the way,
From the earth to the cross, my debt to pay,
From the cross to the grave, from the grave to the sky;
Lord, I lift Your name on high.

WELCOME

Welcome to worship on this second Sunday of Easter. In today's gospel the risen Christ appears to the disciples and offers them the gift of peace. Even amid doubts and questions, we experience the resurrection in our Sunday gathering around word and meal, and in our everyday lives. Throughout the coming Sundays of Easter the first two readings will be from the Acts of the Apostles and the first letter of Peter. Even as the early Christians proclaimed the resurrection, we rejoice in the new birth and living hope we receive in baptism.

THANKSGIVING FOR BAPTISM

All may make the sign of the cross, the sign that is marked at baptism, as the presiding minister begins.

Alleluia! Christ is risen. Christ is risen indeed. Alleluia!

Salvation belongs to our God who is seated on the throne and to the Lamb! Amen.

Let us give thanks for the gifts of baptism.

Water is poured into the font as the presiding minister continues.

Merciful God, you are the one who was, who is, and who is to come.
You lead us beside still waters. We thank you for the waters of creation:
morning dew, gentle rain, roaring waves.

We thank you for the waters that surround us (local waters are named).
and all water sources that nourish us.

Blessed are you. You are the spring of living water.

Jesus Christ, you are the faithful witness who accompanies us on our journeys.

We give you thanks for your life-giving death and resurrection.

We praise you for joining us in joy and sorrow.

Blessed are you. You are the spring of living water.

Holy Spirit, you anoint our head with oil and our cup overflows.

Break down barriers that divide us. Fill us with the breath of peace.

Blessed are you. You are the spring of living water.

Holy One, we thank you for the gifts and grace of baptism, and for making us a new creation.

We join with saints and angels, giving you honor and praise, now and forever.

Alleluia, Amen.

The service continues with the gathering song. As a reminder of the gift of baptism, the gathering is sprinkled with water during the singing.

GATHERING SONG

Just Take All of Me (Just As I Am)

Just as I am, without one plea, but that thy blood was shed for me,
And that thou bidd'st me come to thee, O Lamb of God, I come, I come.

Just as I am, though tossed about with all my conflicts all my doubts, Fighting and fears within, without, O Lamb of God, I come, I come.

Jesus take all of me, I run to you, I run to you,
I lay everything at your feet, let my life be yours.

Just as I am, thou wilt receive, wilt welcome, pardon, cleanse, relieve;
Because thy promises I believe, O Lamb of God, I come, I come.

Jesus take all of me, I run to you, I run to you,
I lay everything at your feet, let my life be yours.

Just as I am; thy love unknown has broken every barrier down;
Now to be thine, yes, thine alone, O Lamb of God, I come, I come.

Jesus take all of me, I run to you, I run to you,
I lay everything at your feet, let my life be yours.

Jesus take all of me, I run to you, I run to you,
I lay everything at your feet, let my life be yours.

Let my life be yours. Let my life be yours.

GREETING

Alleluia! Christ is risen! Christ is risen indeed! Alleluia!

Beloved of God, the immeasurable grace upon grace of our Christ Jesus, the rich mercy and unconditional love of God, and the unity of the Holy Spirit be with you all. And also with you.

PRAYER OF THE DAY

Almighty and eternal God, strength of believers and refuge of doubters, come to us as you came to Thomas, that we who have not seen may receive the gift of faith and know the fullness of your grace; through Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Alleluia, Amen.

✠ WORD ✠

~ God speaks to us in scripture reading, preaching, and song. ~

FIRST READING

Acts 2:14a, 22-32

After the Holy Spirit comes to the apostles on Pentecost, Peter preaches the gospel to the gathered crowd. He tells them that Jesus, who obediently went to his death according to God's plan, was raised from the dead by God. Finally, he appeals to scripture, quoting Psalm 16:8-11, to show that Jesus is the Messiah: though crucified, the risen Jesus is now enthroned.

^{14a}Peter, standing with the eleven, raised his voice and addressed [the crowd]: ²²"Fellow Israelites, listen to what I have to say: Jesus of Nazareth, a man attested to you by God with deeds of power, wonders, and signs that God did through him among you, as you yourselves know ²³this man, handed over to you according to the definite plan and foreknowledge of God, you crucified and killed by the hands of those outside the law. ²⁴But God raised him up, having released him from the agony of death, because it was impossible for him to be held in its power. ²⁵For David says concerning him,

'I saw the Lord always before me, for he is at my right hand so that I will not be shaken;

²⁶therefore my heart was glad, and my tongue rejoiced;
moreover, my flesh will live in hope.

²⁷For you will not abandon my soul to Hades or let your Holy One experience corruption.

²⁸ You have made known to me the ways of life;
you will make me full of gladness with your presence.'

²⁹ "Fellow Israelites, I may say to you confidently of our ancestor David that he both died and was buried, and his tomb is with us to this day. ³⁰ Since he was a prophet, he knew that God had sworn with an oath to him that he would put one of his descendants on his throne. ³¹ Foreseeing this, David spoke of the resurrection of the Messiah, saying, 'He was not abandoned to Hades, nor did his flesh experience corruption.'

³² "This Jesus God raised up, and of that all of us are witnesses."

Word of God. Word of life. Thanks be to God.

PSALM

Psalm 16

The Psalm for the day is read responsively by whole verse. The assembly's response is in bold print.

¹ Protect me, O God, for I take refuge in you;
I have said to the LORD, "You are my Lord, my good above all other."

² All my delight is in the godly that are in the land, upon those who are noble among the people.

³ But those who run after other gods shall have their troubles multiplied.

⁴ I will not pour out drink offerings to such gods, never take their names upon my lips.

⁵ O LORD, you are my portion and my cup; it is you who uphold my lot.

⁶ My boundaries enclose a pleasant land; indeed, I have a rich inheritance.

⁷ I will bless the LORD who gives me counsel; my heart teaches me night after night.

⁸ I have set the LORD always before me; because God is at my right hand, I shall not be shaken.

⁹ My heart, therefore, is glad, and my spirit rejoices; my body also shall rest in hope.

¹⁰ For you will not abandon me to the grave, nor let your holy one see the pit.

¹¹ You will show me the path of life; in your presence there is fullness of joy, and in your right hand are pleasures forevermore.

SECOND READING

1 Peter 1:3-9

This epistle was written to encourage Christians experiencing hardships and suffering because of their faith in Christ. The letter opens by blessing God for the living hope we have through Christ's resurrection even amid difficult circumstances and surroundings.

³ Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ! By his great mercy he has given us a new birth into a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead ⁴and into an inheritance that is imperishable, undefiled, and unfading, kept in heaven for you, ⁵who are being protected by the power of God through faith for a salvation ready to be revealed in the last time. ⁶In this you rejoice, even if now for a little while you have had to suffer various trials, ⁷so that the genuineness of your faith—being more precious than gold that, though perishable, is tested by fire—may be found to result in praise and glory and honor when Jesus Christ is revealed. ⁸Although you have not seen him, you love him, and even though you do not see him now, you believe in him and rejoice with an indescribable and glorious joy, ⁹for you are receiving the outcome of your faith, the salvation of your souls.

Word of God. Word of life. Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL

John 20:19-31

The risen Jesus appears to his disciples, offering them a benediction, a commission, and the gift of the Holy Spirit. But one of their number is missing, and his unbelief prompts another visit from the Lord.

The gospel is announced:

The holy gospel according to Matthew

This is the story of grace flowing down. Glory to you, O Lord.

¹⁹ When it was evening on that day, the first day of the week, and the doors were locked where the disciples were, for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood among them and said, "Peace be with you." ²⁰ After he said this, he showed them his hands and his side. Then the disciples rejoiced when they saw the Lord. ²¹ Jesus said to them again, "Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you." ²² When he had said this, he breathed on them and said to them, "Receive the Holy Spirit. ²³ If you forgive the sins of any, they are forgiven them; if you retain the sins of any, they are retained."

²⁴ But Thomas (who was called the Twin), one of the twelve, was not with them when Jesus came. ²⁵ So the other disciples told him, "We have seen the Lord." But he said to them, "Unless I see the mark of the nails in his hands and put my finger in the mark of the nails and my hand in his side, I will not believe."

²⁶ A week later his disciples were again in the house, and Thomas was with them. Although the doors were shut, Jesus came and stood among them and said, "Peace be with you." ²⁷ Then he said to Thomas, "Put your finger here and see my hands. Reach out your hand and put it in my side. Do not doubt but believe." ²⁸ Thomas answered him, "My Lord and my God!" ²⁹ Jesus said to him, "Have you believed because you have seen me? Blessed are those who have not seen and yet have come to believe."

³⁰ Now Jesus did many other signs in the presence of his disciples that are not written in this book. ³¹ But these are written so that you may continue to believe that Jesus is the Messiah, the Son of God, and that through believing you may have life in his name.

The gospel is proclaimed, concluding:

This is the story of grace that covers us. Praise to you, O Christ.

SERMON

Reverend Christina Kadelbach

SONG OF THE DAY

Glorious Day (Living He Loved Me)

One day, when heaven, was filled with his praises.

One day, when sin was as black as could be.

Jesus came forth to be born of a virgin he dwelt among men, my example is he.

Word became flesh and the light shined among us his glory revealed.

Chorus: Living, he loved me, dying, he saved me.

Buried, he carried my sins far away; rising, he justified freely forever,

One day, he's coming, oh glorious day, oh glorious day.

One day, they led him up Calvary's mountain.

One day, they nailed him to die on a tree,

Suffering anguish, despised and rejected.

Bearing our sins, my redeemer is he.

Hands that healed nations, stretched out on a tree, And took the nails for me.

Repeat chorus

One day, the grave could conceal him no longer.
One day, the stone rolled away from the door.
Then he arose, over death, he had conquered.
Now he's ascended, my Lord evermore.
Death could not hold him, the grave could not keep him from rising again

Repeat chorus

*Bridge: One day, the trumpet will sound for his coming (for your coming)
One day, the skies with his glories will shine (glories will shine)
Wonderful day, my beloved one, bringing my Savior, Jesus, is mine.*

Repeat chorus

AFFIRMATION OF FAITH

We are called to be the Church.

To proclaim Jesus, crucified and risen, our judge and our hope.

We are not alone, we live in God's world.

We believe in God: who has created and is creating, who has come in Jesus, the Word made flesh, to reconcile and make new, who works in us and others by the Spirit. We trust in God.

We are called to be the Church: to celebrate God's presence, to live with respect in Creation, to love and serve others, to seek justice and resist evil, to proclaim Jesus, crucified and risen, our judge and our hope. In life, in death, in life beyond death, God is with us.

We are not alone. Thanks be to God. Amen.

PRAYERS OF INTERCESSION

The prayers are prepared locally for each occasion.

The prayers reflect the wideness of God's mercy for the whole world.

Each portion of the prayers ends with these words:

God of resurrection, hear our prayer.

*Response to the conclusion of the prayers of intercession: Amen.

PEACE

May the risen Christ, our Lord and Savior, fill you with unconditional love, mend you with mercy, and grant you perfect peace. And also with you.

We are changed by Christ's peace and now we have the holy opportunity to extend that peace to others.

TEMPLE TALK

Jesus called his first disciples from the water's edge. Let's Go Fishing carries on that spirit bringing people back to the lake who might never get there on their own. This nonprofit provides free fishing and boating excursions for seniors, veterans, and people with disabilities, offering a handicapped accessible pontoon, all equipment, and a dedicated volunteer crew at no charge. David Brown joins us today to tell us more and share how Bethesda Lutheran might be part of this work.

PRAYER

The presiding minister offers a prayer for the ministry of let's go fishing.

*The gathering responds: Amen.

Thank you for your faithful and generous support.

OFFERING PRAYER

Merciful God, accept the fruits of our labor, gathered to give you glory. You have set a table before us, a glimpse of that great day when we will hunger and thirst no more. Nourish us with the body and blood of Jesus, that goodness and mercy may follow us and bless the world you love. In the name of Jesus, Amen.

WORDS OF INSTITUTION

God is with you. And also with you.

Lift up your hearts. We lift them up to God.

Let us give thanks to the Holy One, our God.

It is good and beautiful to give God our praise.

We give you thanks, O God, for you are good, and your love endures forever.

You create all things and make us in your image, claimed and beloved from the start.

Merciful God, you are faithful from age to age.

You came to us in Jesus Christ, your Son, who ate with strangers, welcomed the forgotten, and showed us what embodied love looks like.

In Christ you bring life from death; we remember his cross, we praise his resurrection

In the night in which he was betrayed, Jesus took bread and gave thanks.

Broke it and gave it to his disciples, saying:

"Take and eat; this is my body given for you. Do this and remember me."

Again, after supper, Jesus took the cup, gave thanks,

And gave it for all the drink, saying:

"This cup is poured out for you and for all people for the forgiveness of sin. Do this and remember me."

Remembering his love for us on the way, at the table, and from death to life, we proclaim the mystery of faith:
Christ has died. Christ is risen. Christ will come again.

Pour out upon us the spirit of your love, and on these gifts of bread and wine, that we may be nourished by the risen Christ himself.
Reveal yourself to us in the breaking of the bread.
Send us forth as people of resurrection, alive to your presence, awake to your call, and bold to carry Easter hope into the world.
Thanks be to God. Alleluia!

THE LORD'S PRAYER (sung)

Our Father in heaven, holy be your name,
Your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us the wrong we have done
As we forgive those who wrong us.
And do not put us to the test, but deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power, and the glory
Are yours, now and forever, forever.

INVITATION TO COMMUNION

Holy Communion is a gift of grace, where we receive the presence of Jesus in bread and wine and are reminded that we are deeply loved. All who hunger for mercy and hope are welcome at this feast. Jesus is the host, and the invitation is wide. Even across time and space, God is present in these gifts, and we, the community, are present to one another.

Come to the table of new life.
Receive the risen Lord.
